

Supporting Materials

Visual Arts: Please bring your portfolio to campus for review. This portfolio should consist of at least ten works produced since your freshman year in high school with the majority of works from your junior and senior years. You will discuss your work in an interview with the Art Department faculty. In addition, candidates will be asked to do a brief exercise of drawing from life while on campus. For this award, the art department will be looking for the serious art student who demonstrates sustained and continuous production in the visual arts at a high level.

Creative Writing: Please send 8 pages (maximum) of your best work in poetry, fiction, creative nonfiction, and/or playwriting. Your material must be received no later than February 25, 2008. All material should be typed and double-spaced. Candidates will discuss their work in an interview with a professor as part of the review process.

Music: Candidates in music should be prepared to perform pieces in two or three contrasting styles. Vocalists should prepare at least one piece not in English. The Music Department will provide an accompanist if needed, but you must contact the music professor listed below to set this up in advance. As part of the audition, candidates will be interviewed by members of the Music Department faculty.

Theater/Film: Candidates should be prepared to work with Theater Department faculty in an informal workshop setting focused on the acting process. Students interested in design and/or technical theater should bring a portfolio with evidence of previous work (production photos, sketches, renderings, light plots, etc.). Students interested in film should bring a DVD of an original short film or selected clips from original film projects. Candidates will be interviewed by members of the Theater Department faculty.

Candidates with any questions or concerns regarding the application process are encouraged to contact the following professors:
