Vol. 6, Issue 5

NOVEMBER 11, 2006

First-Timers Meet in 113th Monon Bell Classic

TODAY'S GAME

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY
(6-3)
vs.
WABASH COLLEGE
(7-2)

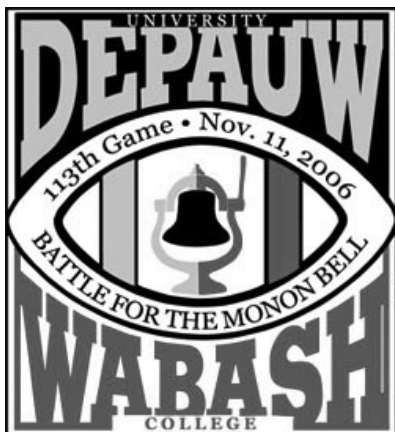

Series Record

The Little Giants defeated DePauw 17-14 last year in Greencastle to take a one-game lead (52-51-9) lead in the overall series. The Tigers hold a two-game lead since the Monon Bell was introduced to the series in 1932 (35-33-6).

Coaches

Chris Creighton is in his sixth season as the head coach of the Little Giants. He has a career record of 83-22, including a record of 51-13 since coming to Wabash. He is among the top-five active coaches in winning percentage in Division III.

Matt Walker is in his first season as the head coach of the Tigers. In addition to his duties as the head baseball coach for the Tiger, the 1999 DePauw graduate has been an assistant football coach for the past six seasons before being elevated to head coach this summer.

Last weekend Wabash celebrated its 1,000th football game in school history with a 41-14 victory over Denison University. The win gave the Little Giants their second consecutive North Coast Athletic Conference title, one they will share with Wittenberg should the Tigers defeat Hiram this afternoon.

There are no playoff berths at stake this year, no games awaiting either team next week. But the intensity will still be there.

Wabash head coach Chris Creighton is now a veteran of these games. Completing his sixth season at the helm of the Little Giant program, Creighton is Junior wide receiver Bart Banach made this diving catch in the second quarter last week at Denison. Two plays later Dustin Huff hit Banach in the corner of the endzone for a 10-yard touchdown pass to give the Little Giants a 20-0 lead.

But a different Tiger team has the full attention of the Wabash players this afternoon. DePauw returns to Hollett Little Giant Stadium to face the Little Giants in the 113th Monon Bell Classic and the beginning of the next 1,000 games in Wabash football history.

Last year Wabash was already planning for the playoffs and needed a victory over DePauw to secure the top seed in the North Region. The Tigers were in a "win and you're in" scenario to make the playoffs. Kyle Piazza ended DePauw's playoff dreams with his 37-yard catch-and-run in the fourth quarter to score the game-winning touchdown. DePauw rallied for a late score, but fell to the Little Giants 17-14.

4-1 in Bell games, with his only loss here at home two years ago in a 14-7 contest.

DePauw head coach Matt Walker knows the Monon Bell rivalry. He grew up in Crawfordsville before heading to DePauw University to play football and baseball. He's also seen the game as a coach, serving as an assistant before being named the head coach over the summer. But today will be his first time calling the shots for DePauw in the Bell Game.

Both team's quarterbacks will also earn their first Monon Bell starts today. DePauw freshman Spud Dick has shared time under center with junior Abe Winkle. Dick has thrown for nearly 1,000 yards and four TDs in his eight

THIS WEEK IN THE NCAC

The Little Giants will do some scoreboard watching today in hopes that Hiram might pull the upset of the year with a win over Wittenberg. A Terriers' victory would put Wabash at the top of the North Coast Athletic Conference standings and would send the Little Giants back to the NCAA Division III playoffs for the second year in a row.

But if that doesn't happen — and keep in mind Hiram is 0-9 coming into the game and 0-7 in school history against Wittenberg — Wabash will still savor its first back-to-back conference titles since earning Indiana Collegiate Athletic Conference titles in 1991 and 1992. This will also mark the first time a team has won back-to-back NCAC titles since Wittenberg won four league championships in row from 1997-2000.

The 1997 title race was also the last time there was a tie at the top of the NCAC standings. Wittenberg, Allegheny, and Wooster each finished with one loss in conference play, sharing the league title.

The Little Giants earned their share of the conference crown with a 41-14 victory over Denison last week. Junior defensive back Bryan Engh led the Little Giants with 15 tackles in addition to an interception and 39-yard return. Those numbers were good enough to earn Engh NCAC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

But further west on I-70, Wittenberg was handing Allegheny a 39-21 defeat behind the spectacular running of senior Tristan Murray. The Tiger tailback finished the game with 199 yards on the ground and four touchdowns to lead the team to within a game of sharing the crown with Wabash.

So keep an ear to the public address announcements today and a good thought for the Hiram Terriers. Who knows what could happen? No one thought the Red Sox could come back against the Yankees to make it to the World Series either!

Junior Bryan Engh earned NCAC Defensive Player of the Week honors after making 15 tackles and this interception at Denison last week.

The Monon Bell Classic - By The Numbers

The Monon Bell Classic is not the oldest college football rivalry, the oldest continuous rivalry, or the oldest continuous rivalry West of the the Allegheny Mountains. It is, however, one of the closest rivalry (difference between victories for both teams) for schools that have played more than 50 times. Kansas and Missouri have meet 114 times, with the Jayhawks holding a one-game edge (53-52-9). Lafayette and Lehigh have played 116 consecutive years for the longest continuous rivalry in the nation.

Here are some fun numbers about the Monon Bell Classic:

Current Winning Streak - 1 (Wabash 17, DePauw 14 in 2005)

Longest Winning Streak - 7 (Wabash 1921-27)

Longest Unbeaten Streak - 10 (DePauw 1955-1964 with two ties in 1956 and 1959)

Largest Margin Of Victory - Wabash 62-0 in 1912

Last Shutout - 1967 (Wabash 7, DePauw 0 in the "Mud Bowl")

Most Points, Both Team - 82 (DePauw 48, Wabash 34 in 1893)

Monon Bell Games - DePauw 35, Wabash 32 (6 Ties)

Monon Bell was added to the rivalry in 1932.

Total Points Scored - Wabash 1,649 DePauw 1,468

Record in Crawfordsville - Wabash leads 23-22-4

Last Game in Crawfordsville - DePauw 14, Wabash 7 (2004)

Injury Changes Walker's Role

By Matt Wilson
Crawfordsville Journal Review

When Andrew Rode caught six passes for 87 yards and one touchdown in last week's 20-10 win over Wooster, the only person happier than the Little Giant sophomore wide receiver might have been senior Geoff Walker.

Last year at this time, Walker was helping lead the Little Giants to unblemished 7-0 mark in the North Coast Athletic Conference. Walker again was doing his part in preparation as Wabash played for at least a share of the conference crown last Saturday at Denison. Walker's role, however, has significantly changed from last year. Instead of catching passes and returning punts, the Lake Central graduate is on crutches giving guidance to his fellow wide receivers during practice.

Even though a torn MCL and ACL he suffered in a 19-17 loss at Wittenberg will keep him out for the remainder of the season, Walker still feels as much a part of the Wabash College football family as he did when he was on the field.

"It makes you think in a different perspective," Walker said. "I just figure if I can't help them on the field, I will help them from the sideline. By no means am I trying to take anyone's coaching spot away, but if I see something that a wide receiver could do a little differently, sure I'm going to say something."

Walker never would have dreamed he would have been in his situation at the beginning of the season. And it took a perfect hit to put him in the spot. In the opening quarter of Wabash's loss at Wittenberg, quarterback Dustin Huff completed a pass to Walker. Walker's left foot got caught in Wittenberg's artificial turf as he came down with the pass. Wittenberg's Will Block tackled Walker in the perfect spot that his knee buckled and he went down. Walker said it took the perfect hit for his injury to occur.

Even though Walker doesn't have any immediate plans of becoming a football coach at any level, he's making the most of the remainder of his senior season. He and the rest of the Little Giant seniors were honored before the last home game against Wooster.

In Walker's new capacity, Wabash coach Chris Creighton said the 2005 Second Team All-NCAC honoree has become a mentor to the remainder of the wide receivers. With the Little Giants gaining at least a share of the conference crown Saturday, Creighton said Walker will have had a big part in that.

Walker said it feels like he's playing vicariously through the players. Receivers come to Walker and tell him they are playing games for him, which makes him feel like part of the family even though he's not on the field.

"Geoff is still very involved," Creighton said. "He's been a mentor to all the receivers and has been to all of the practices."

One of the receivers Walker has helped along is Rode. In three of the last four games, Rode has combined to catch 13 passes for 182 yards. His big catch was an 18-yard touchdown pass from Huff on a third-and-10 play in the fourth quarter of Saturday's game.

"I'm just trying to take everything in stride and do my part in getting the receivers ready for Saturdays," Walker said. "It's just so good to see and rewarding for me personally to see people like Andrew Rode step up and make plays and help us get some wins. He's got a lot of potential not only now but also in the future."

Walker, a rhetoric major, is uncertain of his future plans. But one thing is for certain: his senior year in a Little Giant uniform will be one he will never forget.

appearances this year. Winkle has played in all nine games coming into today's contest, completing 35-of-66 passes for 339 yards and two touchdowns.

Dustin Huff will see his first action in a Monon Bell game, but brings impressive credentials to the game. Huff is ranked second in the nation in passing efficiency with a rating of 179.7. He's also third in total offense (332.3 yards per game).

The most consistent offensive weapon this season for DePauw has been Jeremiah Marks. The junior running back has gained 1,023 yards and scored 12 rushing touchdowns in 197 attempts. Wabash will have to try and contain him once again after holding Marks to 31 yards on 19 carries in last year's Bell game.

When DePauw goes to the air, the Tigers' chief target has been freshman Bryan Mulligan. The 6-0, 180-pounder leads the team with 25 catches for 295 yards and two TDs. Marks also adds the ability to catch the football coming out of the backfield. He's hauled in 18 passes for 222 yards.

Senior Dustin Hertel will lead the DePauw defense in his final Monon Bell game. The All-SCAC defensive end has 71 tackles, including an impressive 23-1/2 for losses totaling 137 yards. Hertel has also recorded 14 sacks for 107 yards, four forced fumbles, has recovered three fumbles, blocked a kick, and has an interception. Eric Lewis leads the team in tackles with 77. Lewis also has two interceptions, a sack, and seven tackles for losses from his linebacker spot.

The Tiger defense will have to find a way to stop the "Fab Four" receivers from Wabash, led by junior Mike Russell. The junior from Terre Haute, Indiana is fourth in the nation in receiving yards with an average of 106.9 ypg, and is among the leaders in scoring with an eight points-per-game average. Ray Green (19 rec. for 229 yards, 2 TDs), Bart Banach (18 rec. for 146 yards, 2 TDs), and Andrew Rode (15 rec. for 225 yards, 2 TDs) aren't the only targets for Huff to find on the field. Fourteen Little Giant players have caught passes this year for a total of 191 receptions, 2,708 yards, and 28 passing touchdowns. Wabash is third in the nation in passing with an average of 300.9 ypg.

By day's end, 14 senior members of the Wabash football team will be ready to ring the Bell one final time as a player, bringing an end to an stellar four years as a Little Giant. Let the battle begin!

Chris Greisl and Adi Pynenberg combine for this sack last week at Denison. The Little Giants hope to control the DePauw offense and win the Monon Bell for the 34th time.
