March 2007

Class of 1992,

Our fifteen-year class reunion, scheduled for June 1-3, is fast approaching. Activities include a golf outing, campus tours, luncheons, individual class receptions, a banquet, an organized walk/run, alumni chapel sing contest, fraternity open houses, chapel service, awards banquet, and various colloquiums presented by Wabash professors and distinguished alumni. For example, Pete Metzelaar's will be leading a colloquium entitled "My life and times in professional football".

Thankfully, the College does the vast majority of the organization. Currently our class is way behind the other classes with only two individuals actually registered. While many have intimated that they "are planning on going", they have not acted upon these intentions.

Things you need to do:

- 1) Register: Wabash has an alumni link with a detailed schedule of the weekend's activities at www.wabash.edu. Note that there is a difference between actually registering and signing up on the "Hope to attend" list. Several classmates have volunteered to make phone calls to encourage attendance and you should be hearing from them: Mike Gaby (Phi Psi), Pablo Bukata and Keith Veal (Independents), Garth Eberhardt (Delt), Steve Campbell (FIJI), Pete Horvath (Beta), Joe Emmick (Lambda Chi), Rob Rudicel (Phi Delts), Randy Cole (Tekes), Greg Theobald (Sigma Chi) and Jim Sanders (Theta Delta Chi). The call for a volunteer from the Kappa Sigs remains unheeded.
- 2) Reserve a room: Blocks of rooms have been reserved either under the name Jason Little or the class of 1992 for Friday and Saturday night. Inform them that you are with the Wabash Reunion. The Super 8 gave us the largest block of rooms, so I recommend this first, as everyone will be at the same location with the Days Inn the next choice.

Super 8 Motel (I-74 and U.S. 231 North) Phone: 765-361-8800. 40 rooms at $62/night. Must reserve by May 17th.

Ramada Limited (I-74 and U.S. 231 North) Phone: 765-364-9999. 10 rooms at $69.9/night. Must reserve by May 17th.

Days Inn (I-74 and U.S. 231 North) Phone: 765-362-0300. 25 rooms at $69/night. Must reserve by May 17th.

- 3) Child Care: The Little Green House Creativity Center offers child care and is operated by Jennifer Meadows, a former Assistant Professor in Early Childhood Education who has over 20 years of experience teaching and working with young children. Reservations can be made at 765-361-9660 or 765-376-1921 or by email at meadowsjennifer@sbcglobal.net
- 4) Tell us about yourself: Whether you are able to attend or not, please provide the class with a paragraph update of the events in your life since graduation such as education, career choices, marriages, children, partners, residencies, hobbies, passions, interests. Send the update to Michele Tatar at tatarm@wabash.edu. We will make a compilation of the updates to the class at the reunion.

Class notes:

Kenyatta Bram: Received was promoted to a vice presidential position at Cascade Engineering in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Greg Horman writes "after seven years in New Zealand, I now find myself in France. I am working as an economist at the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development in Paris. My current role is as a technical expert for the OECD's new initiative with African governments on public debt management and bond markets. I can be reached at gregory.horman@oecd.org.

Mike Berry writes "I completed my MBA at Santa Clara University in mid-2005 and then left Apple for a position at eBay. Here I am a Staff Business Analyst working within the marketing department. On October 19th we welcomed a son into the family, John Frederick Berry, and I will set his sights on Crawfordsville. My daughter will turn 3 in March and my wife recently ended her contract at Schwab for the most difficult job of all: full-time mom. We recently left San Francisco for the burbs of San Carlos which cut my commute in half and allowed us to finally have a yard. I can be reached at my personal email address of mberry133@yahoo.com

Campus News:

Dr. Patrick E. White was inaugurated as Wabash's 15th President in January.

Glee Club Reunion will be held on Homecoming Weekend, September 28-29, 2007. Planned events include a performance at the Homecoming Alumni Chapel; the Celebrating Leadership donor recognition luncheon; singing the National Anthem before the football game; and the Homecoming Concert Saturday evening. Glee Club alumni are encouraged to attend.

Malcolm X Institute Documentary: The Malcolm X Institute of Black Studies is now the focus of a documentary film directed by 1987 Wabash College and 1983 Fountain Central High School graduate Jo Throckmorton. Throckmorton began work on the documentary study with support from former MXIBS director Horace Turner and former Wabash College President Andy Ford. Two years and numerous interviews later, the film "A Legacy of Hope" is set to debut.

Five students competed in the 133rd Baldwin Oratorical Contest which is the oldest continuous public speaking contest west of the Alleghenies.

Return to the class reunion in style and Pimp your Ride with a Wabash license plate and a $25 donation. Visit www.wabash.edu/alumni/plate for more information.

Fraternity Renovation Update:

After nearly 6 years of planning, the Phi Psi's held a rededication ceremony in February for the $3 million renovation.

The Tekes have vacated their house and will reside in the old Fiji house for the next eighteen months while their new house is built on the location of the old Sigma Chi house. Occupancy expected in the fall of 2008.

The Delts will renovate their house over the next two summers with completion scheduled for the fall of 2008.

The Kappa Sigs are working with an architect and raising funds for their planned renovation.

If you have any questions email me at jasonlittle1969@yahoo.com.

Hope to see you at the reunion,

Jason
