Gentlemen of the Class of 2008,

It's hard to believe how quickly time goes, but this year is our first noteworthy reunion year – our 5 year reunion! You have probably already seen information about Big Bash taking place at Wabash this summer on the weekend of May 31 – June 2. It's our opportunity to get together, reminisce about those fleeting years, and learn about each other's accomplishments and pursuits of the last 5 years. And for those of you who haven't had many chances to get back to campus, you can knock that off the list, too.

In the coming weeks you'll be receiving phone calls, emails, Facebook messages, texts, etc., in the hopes that you will join us. On the College's website (<http://www.wabash.edu/alumni/bigbash/>) you'll find all of the information you need and you can register there, as well. But here are a few things to highlight:

- The registration deadline is May 22nd.
- If you register now and later have a conflict arise, you can get a full refund up until May 22nd for any reason.
- For the classes of 2008 and 2003, rooms are available in Wolcott and Morris, first come first serve, for $15 per night.
- Part of Big Bash is a Donor Challenge, where each class tries to beat its best-ever giving percentage from prior years. Should we beat our marks from the last 5 years (not including senior year), we will have a free open bar at our class dinner on Saturday night.

Wondering who else is going to attend? Here's a list of guys who have committed to attend or have already registered in just the last few weeks:

Will Arvin

Ty Benefiel

Shawn Bennett (He's coming from Canada – what's your excuse?!)

Andy Deig

Chad Finley

Chris Geggie

Alex Goga

Barron Hewetson

Jesse James

Matt Maher

Kyle McClammer

Jon Miller

Please let us know if you have any questions, and we hope to see you on May 31st!

In Wabash,

Jesse, Andy, and Kyle
