LOCATION

Wabash College is located in Crawfordsville, Indiana, 45 miles Northwest of Indianapolis and 150 miles southeast of Chicago. If you are driving to campus, Wabash is easily accessible from Interstate 74 and U.S. 231. We also provide transportation from the Indianapolis International Airport. Crawfordsville, a community of 20,000, is home to the Ben Hur museum, the Old Jail Museum and the Lane Place Antebellum Mansion. Shades State Park and Turkey Run State Park are both within 30 minutes of campus and feature ravines and beautiful natural landscapes with opportunities for hiking and canoeing.

INDIANA TOURISM

The official Web site of the Indiana Division of Tourism has more information about Indiana, resources for planning a trip to the state and the origination of the term "Hoosier."
